LUCAS ANDREWS

FULL STACK DEVELOPER

/ ABOUT ME

Specialized in web and mobile application developments with a professional background in Business Administration. Very autodidact and proactive person who is always looking for new learning experiences and solving problems creatively, hand in hand with a bit of perfectionism.

Besides laboral life, huge passion for sports and nature. Believer and practitioner of a healthy lifestyle. On the other hand, great ease in communicating and relating with people.

In search of a long-term job that is constantly teaching new things, with the possibility of being an input in society.
